Residents demand Doughty's dismissal

Venice council's meeting devoted to controversy

By Scott Cousins
Staff writer

About 60 very angry Venice residents made it very clear Tuesday that they want Superintendent James Doughty removed from his job with the Venice School District.

Petitions seeking help from county and state education agencies were also presented to Mayor Tyrone Echols.

Except for a few routine matters, the entire two-hour meeting was in anticipation of large crowds.

AmerenUE protest target Mitchell residents blame company for division

MITCHELL

By Mike Hall
Staff writer

About 25 Mitchell residents picketed AmerenUE's St. Louis headquarters Tuesday morning to show their displeasure over Mitchell being divided because of recent annexations by Granite City.

The division cut off about 50 residential homes from the proposed Mitchell boundaries.

Because the land is no longer contiguous to the Mitchell area, it cannot be part of any future incorporation.

Granite City recently annexed about 1,500 acres owned by the company.

"AmerenUE was unfair. They didn't consider residents that were cut off from our proposed boundaries," said Bob Staicoff, a Mitchell resident. "There are people in those boundaries that would have liked to become incorporated into Mitchell."

Mitchell residents also complained that the annexation reduced its potential population, making incorporation more difficult.

"We tried to work with Union Electric, but they would not work with us," Mitchell Fire Protection District Chief Ed Lee said. "They not only annexed land in our area, but endangered Mitchell residents by cutting them off from fire protection and EMS service."

Ron Trimmer, another Mitchell resident, said that residents will continue to fight for what they believe is right.

"Before Mitchell came together as a community, no one cared about this land," he said. "Now it seems like everybody wants it for tax revenue."

"The only people who should get our tax revenue is us. We put the community together."

Susan Gallagher, a spokeswoman for AmerenUE, said the company has tried to be sensitive to Mitchell's concerns, but has questioned Mitchell's ability to provide services to the land. That is why the company objected to Mitchell's incorporating the 1,500-acre tract, she said.

State statutes require a community to have a population of at least 7,500 to incorporate without the consent of neighboring municipalities.

Recent annexations by Edwardsville, Pontoon Beach and Granite City prompted Associate Judge Randall Bono to throw out an incorporation petition in January.

Bono threw out the petition because Mitchell only had a population base of about 7,251.

Derr gets 30 years for manager's murder

By Dennis Grubaugh
Staff writer

John Derr was sentenced to 30 years in prison Tuesday for the 1992 murder of the former manager of Genco's 140 Club in Bethalto.

Defense attorneys say they plan an immediate appeal and will seek to overturn the verdict because of errors they feel were made by the judge and the prosecutor.

Derr's wife, Frances, wept as he was placed in handcuffs and led from the third-floor courtroom of Associate Judge Ann Callis, Derr, of Granite City, had tears in his eyes.

The victim's widow, Jean Oberbeck, also cried as she hugged her 9-year-old son.

"I'm excited and glad it's over with," she said as she left the courtroom. She had testified that the loss of her husband, Dennis, has been hard on her and her son financially and physically.

Dennis Oberbeck of Bethalto was killed Aug. 14, 1992, at Derr's former home in Granite City. According to trial testimony, Derr met up with Oberbeck earlier that evening at Genco's 140 Club and was apparently upset about money Oberbeck owed him. After the killing, Derr dumped the body behind a house along Riverview Boulevard in St. Louis.

Authorities have said that Derr beat Oberbeck to death with his fists. But defense attorney Thomas Hildebrand maintains that Oberbeck's 0.39 percent blood-alcohol level was "toxic" enough to make it a contributing factor.

A jury on Nov. 19 found Derr, 40, guilty of one count of felony murder based on robbery and one count of felony murder based on intimidation. He was also found guilty of involuntary manslaughter and concealing a homicide.

Callis subsequently threw out the murder based on intimidation verdict, saying that the state failed to prove that aspect of the case.

Callis sentenced Derr to 25 years for murder and five years for manslaughter, the terms to run concurrently, and a consecutive term of five years for concealing a homicidal death.

devoted to ongoing problems at the school.

While the city can officially do nothing itself, Echols said further action would be taken on behalf of the citizens.

"After seeing what they went through at the last (school) board meeting, I thought it was a good idea to have a public forum here so we could air out their complaints," he said after Tuesday's meeting, referring to last week's often-raucous Venice School Board meeting. "It's without question that I plan to go further to seek some relief for them."

He suggested some kind of public forum including representatives of the Madison County Superintendent of Schools office and the Illinois State Board of Education.

Echols also urged residents to contact School Board members and attend meetings, he told board members opposed to Doughty to let people know about problems in the district.

Two board members — Tyrone Q. Echols and Metro Pierson — attended Tuesday's meeting.

The board appears to be split 4-3 regarding most matters. Board President Alvester Salmond and Trustees Karen Matkins, Sandra Harris and James Harrell make up the majority of the board. Minority members are Echols, Pierson and William Tyler.

Other actions suggested by members of the crowd Tuesday evening ranged from marching up to the Madison County State's Attorney's office to seek child endangerment charges against Doughty to linking arms Wednesday morning to block Doughty from entering the school grounds.

Residents' complaints ranged from concerns about events last week to other actions by the board and Doughty.

"They're not able to have school because he has teachers guarding the fire alarms," said parent Ariene Katana.

"This man has got to go, one way or another."

Dorothy Johnson, a former substitute teacher in the Venice School District and the parent of two students, also expressed her concerns.

"Our kids are still not back in school because they are refusing to go to school until they address the issue of Mr. Doughty suspending our principal there," she said.

The suspension of Venice High School Principal Annette Alexander was the event which set off the most recent problems.

Johnson said many students say they will not go back until Alexander returns.

"She is the backbone of the school, she should not be treated like a janitor," Johnson said.

Alexander, along with most of the students and some teachers who had called in sick Tuesday, had returned to classes Wednesday morning.

After the meeting, Tyrone Q. Echols said he hoped they could talk to other board members and "persuade them to come over to the side of the kids."

He said one of the biggest problems with the situation is that the minority board members get little to no information from Doughty.

"Even when we go to the meetings and ask for the information, he may or may not give it to us, it depends on how he's feeling," Echols said. "He is acting like a dictator. This is a democracy, the majority rules, but still the minority is supposed to be heard."

"If Doughty can't change his ways, then I think the solution would be his removal," he said.

Doughty spoke briefly to a reporter about the situation at the school Wednesday, but other than confirming that Alexander had returned, declined comment.

Embattled VHS principal returns to work

By Scott Cousins
Staff writer

Venice High School Principal Annette Alexander returned to school Wednesday, along with students who had refused to attend classes since she was suspended and almost half the district's teachers who called in sick Tuesday.

School officials reported that the situation at the school — which has upset parents, students and city officials — appears to be returning to normal, but many in the community are still extremely angry.

Venice School Superintendent James Doughty confirmed Wednesday morning that Alexander had returned to school, but declined to answer any more questions, saying he was too busy to talk at that time.

However, he told a reporter to make an appointment for an interview later.

Alexander's suspension is expected to be discussed by the School Board some time Friday, according to a board member.

After Tuesday's Venice City Council meeting, School Board member Tyrone Q. Echols said he was told the board would meet Friday to discuss the suspension, but had not been told the time.

Alexander was suspended with pay Feb. 23 after failing to submit a bathroom monitoring report. Students upset with the action staged a protest. A fire alarm was pulled, and more than 20 students who left the building were not allowed to return to class.

Police received reports of students wandering around in the area, but Doughty refused to discuss the situation with them.

At other times during the day, students were not allowed to leave during fire alarms, including one incident involving a small fire in a trash can. In addition to refusing to talk to police about the incidents, Doughty refused to speak to parents or the media.

About 150 parents attended last week's School Board meeting, many complaining about Doughty's actions.

After hearing from angry parents, the board went into executive session for more than three hours to discuss the situation. After coming out of executive session at about 12:30 a.m., the board voted 4-3 to suspend Alexander with pay until Friday.

Since that meeting, many students have refused to attend school, saying they would not return until Alexander came back. And nearly half the district's teachers called in sick Tuesday.

Edwardsville club to host annual soccer showdown this month

The Metro East will receive another boost in its soccer reputation March 13-14, when the Metro Futbol Club of Edwardsville will conduct its third annual showcase at Southern Illinois University-Edwardsville.

"It's one of the premier showcases in the Midwest," said Dale Schilly, coaching director of Metro FC. "It's 100-percent better than it was last year."

This year's showcase will attract 52 boys teams, primarily from the Midwest, in four divisions — under-18, under-17, under-16 and under-15. Most of the players were high school players last season. Included in the field are 11 state champions from last year, two Region II champs and one Region II runner-up. Nine states will be represented — Illinois, Missouri, Michigan, Indiana, Wisconsin, Kentucky, Kansas, Ohio and New York.

"There will be many players who made our national and regional teams," Schilly said.

The talented field quite naturally will attract college coaches.

"We'll have 50 to 60 coaches there," Schilly said. "Saint Louis U., Creighton and Indiana all will be represented. That's a good start there. I've also heard that Stanford, Dartmouth and Brown might be sending coaches. The coaches will have an opportunity to see a lot of Midwest talent in two days."

To attract such quality coaches, Schilly had to get quality clubs in the showcase.

"You have to have clubs that college coaches identify with," Schilly said.

He has done that by attracting clubs such as Vardar III of Detroit, Busch Soccer Club and Scott Gallagher of St. Louis, the Chicago Magic Sockers, Javanov of Kentucky, and UA Wave and Milwaukee Kickers of Wisconsin.

"The plum in this year's field is Vardar of Detroit," Schilly said. "They've won many national championships."

Vardar, the 1998 U17 Michigan champion, is bringing its U18 team and will be pooled with the Chicago Magic Sockers, which won the U17 state title in Illinois last year. The Chicago team went on to win the Region II championship as well. The other teams in the pool are Busch and Windy City of Illinois.

There will be 12 teams in three of the four pools, with the U17 division having 10 teams. Each team will play four games, two on each day. Team champions will not be decided.

"Team standings aren't important in a format like this," Schilly said. "It's more important that the coaches get a chance to see the players and fill in their rosters where they need help. We're past the main recruiting season, but the coaches, of course, didn't get all the players they wanted for whatever reason. This is their chance to find some more good players. It's not too late for the current seniors to land in a good program."

"It's also important for the teams to come down and play in a warm climate to get ready for their State Cups, as well as the Dallas Cup, which is at the end of March, just before Easter."

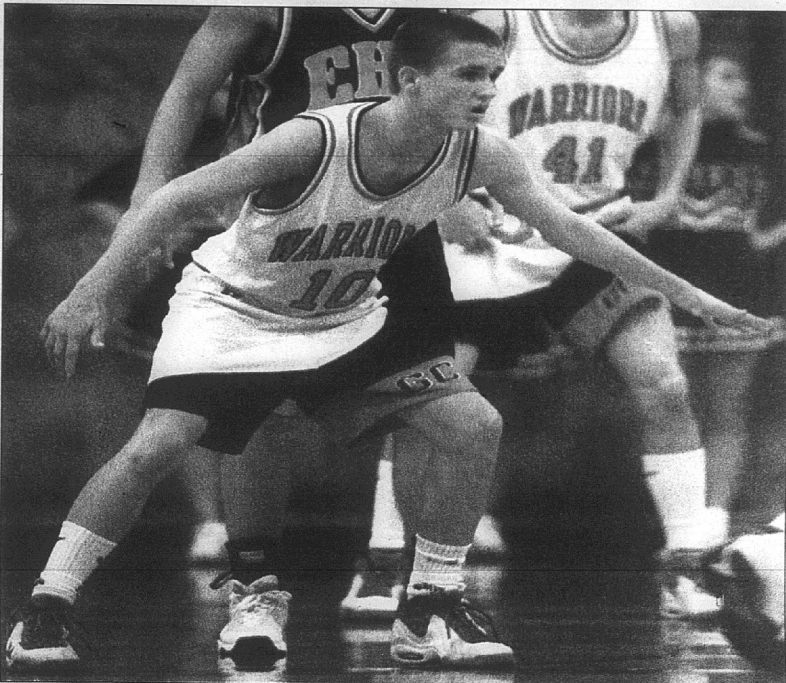

Included in the field will be seven area teams, headed by Downtown Imprints of Troy, which finished second in the U18 Illinois State Cup last year. Independente, a U17 team from Collinsville and O'Fallon, also will play in the showcase, as will five Metro FC teams — two each in the U15 and U17 age groups and one in the U16 division.

"Up until now, our showcase has been a buddy-buddy thing," Schilly said. "I was able to get the clubs like the Magic Sockers, Busch and Scott Gallagher that I was friendly with. Now, I've reached out to other areas. Our next step is to get sponsorship."

Schilly said he plans on starting a girls showcase.

"It will be a three- to four-year process, just like the boys, to build it up into a premier event," Schilly said.

Granite City ends 10-game losing streak with victory over Althoff

Granite City closed out the regular season with 10 straight losses as the Southwestern Conference schedule took its toll.

BOYS BASKETBALL

The Warriors finally got a victory for their hard work on Tuesday night, beating independent Belleville Althoff 62-47 in an IHSA Class AA first-round regional playoff game.

Granite City outscored the Crusaders 25-8 in the final quarter to post the victory.

Kevin Elliot started the spree for Granite City with a 3-pointer just 30 seconds into the last frame. That gave the Warriors a 40-39 lead. With 5:05 left to play, Zack May hit a 3-pointer to give Granite City a 47-43 advantage. Two minutes later, Althoff's Steve Fahrner hit two free throws to shrink the deficit to 49-45, but freshman Teddy Wallace's layup gave Granite a six-point lead. The Warriors hit all of their free throws down the stretch to put the game away.

Matt Pistorius was a perfect 8 for 8 from the charity stripe and led the Warriors with 22 points. May had 21, including four 3-pointers.

"The kids did a good job," Granite City coach John Vankirk said. "Althoff is a nice ballclub. You always wonder after our streak if everybody doubts themselves, but we just had to snap out of it. We didn't

Warriors honored for first trophy in team tournament

By Rick Broome

The grapplers got their Achilles' heel Tuesday afternoon.

The fourth-place trophy the Warriors won last weekend at the IHSA Class AA team tournament was on display as the Granite City wrestlers marched through a phalanx of cheerleaders into the gym to the roar of the student body.

Superintendent of Granite City Schools Steve Baylon spoke at the celebration. He related a meeting with former Illinois governor Jim Edgar, during which Edgar said "Granite City — isn't that the town with the wrestling?"

Granite City has an unshakable legend in high school wrestling — it is the nation's winningest program with more than 1,020 dual meet victories — but it has not had much success in the state's team tournament since the IHSA began the format in 1984. This was the team's first triphy, following its first quarterfinal victory in six tries.

"With them rearranging the seasonals, we kept running into Chicago Mount Carmel," Granite City coach Mike Garland said. "The year I know we could have beaten them (1995), the IHSA cancelled the tournament. A couple of times we lost to them by a couple of points, so it's not like we were completely out of the ballpark."

"What people in Granite City have to realize is that in 1988, if they would have kept the scoring the same, at the individual tournament we would have placed second. In 1996, we would have won it. At least now we have something legitimate to show for it. I was really happy for the kids."

Edwardsville hammers Warriors in quarterfinals

Edwardsville scored several times against the Illinois Warriors on Tuesday, but the first goal decided the game.

CLUB ICE HOCKEY

The Tigers eliminated the defending Mississippi Valley Club Hockey Association champions from the Class AA playoffs with a 5-1 victory at the East Alton Ice Rink.

With good forechecking, the Warriors owned the game early, but Edwardsville cleared the zone with an exclamation point. Carl Coleman, who corralled a clearing pass, got behind the Warriors defense and scored on a breakaway just 1 minute, 16 seconds into the game. The Warriors would never be the same.

"That opening shift, they had the pressure on us, and we were able to chip the puck out of the zone," Edwardsville coach Dennis Gerling said. "Carl went in and put one in. We knew that if we could get to them early that we'd have an advantage. Our team is used to playing third period comebacks. But we really wanted to get on them early, and that was the key to the game."

Tigers netminder Nick Terry frustrated the Warriors throughout the first period. With 3:18 left in the opening stanza, Granite City had outshot Edwardsville 7-2 but had not lit the lamp.

"I thought we had better scoring opportunities," Granite City coach Paul Solberger said. "The first period, I thought Terry played real well. Early in the game, he stopped Dustin Wesley point blank, he stopped Bobby (Meszaros) point blank, Jared (Brown) point blank. He made some good saves. And I thought we were all over them, and then we let in the soft goal, and they escalated and we just went down. We just never got it back. We started running around defensively and just never really gained our composure."

Edwardsville turned up the heat in the second period. Coleman broke in alone, but Warriors goalie Scott Bronnbauer made a diving save. Bronnbauer also managed to stop Joe McCrea's blistering slapper from beyond the blue line. Bronnbauer got a piece of the shot, then snatched the puck in his trapper as it trickled toward the goal.

But the Tigers kept coming. Granite City's Bill Cahill took Mark Parker out of an odd-man rush, but J. Singler walked in alone to poke in the rebound with 7:46 remaining in the second period.

"I think our biggest breakdown was we were not picking up our man coming back out of the zone," Solberger said. "Defensively we weren't picking a man and staying with him."

Granite City answered on the power play. Meszaros' cannon shot from the point ricocheted off Cahill's skate and into the net.

"Nick came up big for us," Gerling said. "That goal that they got probably bounced off three or four skates, so there really wasn't much he could do on that, but he was pretty much able to see most of the shots. We kept the front of the net cleared a lot better tonight. If he can-see them, he's got a good shot at making the play. Nick did a good job."

Edwardsville waited only 35 seconds to increase their advantage. Mike Marietta buried a loose puck at the 5:20 mark, which prompted Solberger to bring in goalie Brandon Rollins.

The spark never came. Edwardsville limited the Warriors to just six shots in the final two periods. The Tigers ended the night with 29 shots on goal, while Granite City only managed 14.

The Tigers also didn't discriminate in their scoring barrage. D.J. Schwab blasted an unassisted goal past Rollins at the 3:40 mark. The third goal of the period, it increased the bulge to 4-1.

The second period, they definitely took it to us," Solberger said. "I gotta give them credit. They came out with a jump, and they handed it to us. They outplayed us big."

The Tigers added a late goal in the last minute of play amid an ugly third period.

"It all started with what I considered to be a late hit down here," Solberger said. "Michael Vanek hit a guy well after the whistle, and there was no call. And the kids thought they were running the goalie a little bit, and they retaliated, and that worked to Edwardsville's favor."

Edwardsville's Vanek steamrolled Tim Knowlton to start the late chain of violence. The Warriors' Jared Brown went to the box after he picked up Lee Free and threw him against the boards.

Knowlton later sent Holshouser reeling. Zack Robi-nette retaliated against Knowlton, drawing a penalty for roughing.

The heavy hitting culminated with four penalties in the final minute.

Knowlton drew a five-minute major for cross-checking and a two-minute minor for roughing when he took some liberties with his lumber on the back of Coleman's head.

Matt Salzman also went off for taking a swipe at an Edwardsville player, and Singler drew a roughing penalty

"We covered (Bobby) Meszaros. We pretty much neutralized him, and that was our gameplan to keep him off the board. He's their big gun, and I thought we did that pretty well."

Dennis Gerling
Edwardsville coach

as time expired.

"The referee is gonna let the kids play hockey, and he's not going to try to make a difference in the hockey game," Solberger said. "He's going to let them go unless it's a flagrant foul. Tonight, Ralph Sneider ... let them play rough. There was a few late hits and it took us out of our game because instead of concentrating on putting the puck in the net, we started concentrating on trying to hit them."

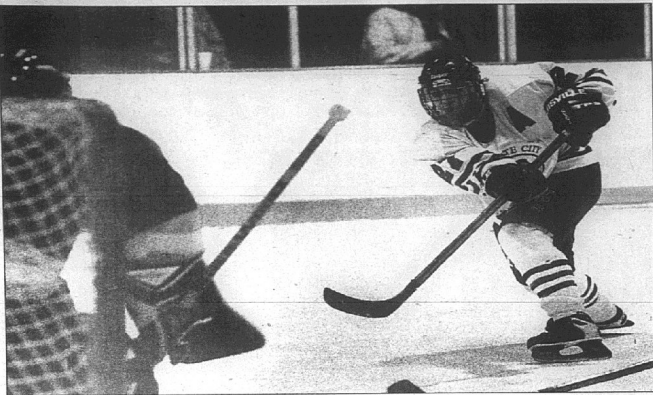

Gerling said enthusiasm and patience allowed Edwardsville, who will face Bethalto Civic Memorial or Alton today, to advance in the playoffs.

"We came out ready to play," Gerling said. "We covered (Bobby) Meszaros. We pretty much neutralized him, and that was our gameplan to keep him off the board. He's their big gun, and I thought we did that pretty well. Cliff Holshouser did a great job covering him. That was a big part of the game."

Although his team thrives on late heroics, Gerling was glad his team didn't have to play catch-up.

"We knew if we survived the first period, and we could get up, this team gets stronger as they go," Gerling said. "They came out ready to play, they were up for this game, and that's what we needed. We needed the effort, and we got it."

Bobby Meszaros has led the Illinois Warriors in scoring each of the last two seasons and ranks among the top offensive players in the Mississippi Valley Club Hockey Association.

Warriors expect solid season next year

Nucleus, goalies return for two-time MVCHA division champions

By Chris Waldvogel
Staff writer

After a season-ending loss Tuesday, the Illinois Warriors must now look to the future.

The defending Mississippi Valley Club Hockey Association champions fell to Edwardsville 5-1 in the quarterfinals.

But Granite City coach Paul Solberger already can't wait for next season.

"I think we've got a bright future and I definitely think we have to be one of the favorites in the league next year," he said.

The Warriors, in their second year of existence, ended the regular season with a nine-game unbeaten streak and claimed the MVCHA Northern Division title with a 13-6-3 record.

The Warriors continued their charge into the playoffs by beating Roxana 10-3. After a 3-2 setback to Cahokia in overtime, Granite City topped Alton Marquette 2-1 to advance.

Although they exited the postseason early, the Warriors lost only three players to graduation: Tim Knowlton, Jared Brown and Robyn Slater.

Solberger thinks the biggest improvement will be his goaltending.

"You could flip a coin between Scotty (Bronnbauer) and Brandon (Rollins) all year," Solberger said. "I really don't have a clear-cut No. 1 goaltender. I've said all year long with the goaltending

"I think we've got a bright future.... We bring back most of the kids, and there's a big difference in size and stature. They're growing and they're juniors, and they're going to come back and be bigger and stronger and faster. They are going to hit a growth spurt."

Paul Solberger
Illinois Warriors coach

that I look at the kids and see which one was really to play." Tuesday's game against Edwardsville provided an example of how Solberger used his surplus between the pipes.

"Scotty came out and the first shot of the game, he let in a goal," Solberger said.

"Brandon came in, he stretched out, and I thought he had a good game. We tried to rally the kids around Brandon. He's a little smaller in stature and everything. We tried to fire the kids up. I hated to take a time out in the second period, but we needed to do something. Edwardsville was coming, and we tried a goalie change, and I thought for a while we were going to come back and start carrying it to them. But Brandon made some darn good saves. I can't fault him a bit."

Solberger said his netminders gained valuable experience this year.

Solberger said, "Both Brandon and Scotty are sophomores, and last year playing behind Robbie Slater, they didn't see much playing time. They got experience in the playoffs, and we just gotta look and be positive for next year. I think the goalies have a year behind them. They're not going to be so nervous."

Leading the offensive charge will be Bobby Meszaros, a junior who finished second in the division scoring race with 28 goals and 21 assists. He led the division last year.

Juniors Dustin Wesley and John Stordahl and sophomore Brett Solberger will provide added scoring punch, while Juniors Bill Fior and Bill Cahill will bring physical play to augment the team's speed. David Svezia's solid defense also will play a major part in Granite City's bid.

Other returning juniors will be Matt Salzman and Eric Wright.

"We bring back most of the kids, and there's a big difference in size and stature," Solberger said. "They're growing and they're juniors, and they're going to come back and be bigger and stronger and faster. They are going to hit a growth spurt."

Solberger also has been blessed with several young players who will find more playing time next year.

"We've got some fine freshmen on this team in Josh Anderson, Luke Forrester and little Raymond Smith," he said. "I would have liked to put him in against Edwardsville, but he's a little small and it started getting rough."

Because of the nucleus for next year, Solberger likes the Warriors' chances when compared to other teams.

"I know that Edwardsville is graduating two or three kids and their goaltender," he said. "You start looking around our division and you see who is leaving, and I think we that we've gotta be up toward the top."

finals before dropping matches against Moline and Maine West.

"In the Dekalb match, Jake Trianj (112 pounds) got a huge pin for us right when we needed it," Garland said. "Probably the turning point of the match was when we were down 22-15 and Brooks (Narvaez, 152 pounds) went out and pinned his guy in 57 seconds. He came up screaming and yelling and waving his arms, which is unusual for him because he usually keeps his emotions in. It just really got everybody pumped up, fired up."

"That match and then George (Kiran, 160 pounds) won, and (Justin) got a huge pin for us right when we needed it," Garland said. "Probably the turning point of the match was when we were down 22-15 and Brooks (Narvaez, 152 pounds) went out and pinned his guy in 57 seconds. He came up screaming and yelling and waving his arms, which is unusual for him because he usually keeps his emotions in. It just really got everybody pumped up, fired up."

"I thought we were back to being in trouble again and then Brooks stepped on the mat and pinned this guy in 57 seconds and our whole bench just erupted. Then you have the domino effect with those other guys winning and it was our victory after that. They were all big, but Brooks was probably the key match. It was really surprising they only beat us with decisions and one technical fall, so that made a big difference."

pinning them two or three times and they only beat us with decisions and one technical fall, so that made a big difference."

"You really have to take your hat off to these kids. The last five or six years, I've had teams where not everybody was committed after the individual tournament. That's why you lose matches by a point, or three points. We had two kids who were questionable, but the captains had a talk with those two guys and they turned it around. We had a team effort and we needed that to beat a tough Dekalb team who has a lot of tradition, like Granite City. It made a big difference."

Garland hopes the hardware will make a big difference to wrestlers that come through the program in the future.

"I got so tired of telling people, you know, in 1995 we would have placed second, in '96 we would have won it," Garland said. "But if you don't have anything to show for it, that's just idle talk and only means something to me, I guess. But now we have something concrete that people can look at and touch. Hopefully the little kids in this town can look at this and really get motivated to come out for wrestling and fall in love with the sport."

All year, Garland pointed to state as the pot at the end of the rainbow, the justification for a brutal schedule of opponents across the state. The team saw its regular season dual-meet victory streak end after more than 100 contests with a loss to eventual state champ New Lenox Providence, but it emerged with a state trophy.

"This wasn't one of my better teams, but it was the best team I've ever had with character," Garland said. "You hear about these teams with all of this talent that don't win, then you hear about these average teams with great chemistry that win. I think with this team, their greatest attribute was their chemistry."

"They just really gelled together and they all just hung together through all the adversity. It was tough, Brooks and Venne not winning at state, Worthen and Paullie Johnson not getting to state, they were just totally defeated. Some of these kids have been wrestling since second or third grade and just to not reach that goal is just devastating. To flat suck it up and dedicate themselves, not only to themselves but to each other, that's probably what I am most proud of these guys for—just for that fact. If they go out in the game of life and they have some adversity, they know that they have the character to deal with any situation."

come out of those situations the last 10 games. We were in those situations most ball games and we always did something negative. Tonight we did positive things. Zack makes an important 3-pointer, Matt gets a nice bounce pass inside. Those things happened tonight for us and everybody contributed."

Teddy Wallace came off the bench and did a nice job. I tried to get him in the first half and the clock ran out on me. He's not a true freshman anymore. He has that experience and he had it before he got here. But now he has a year of varsity experience and you never feel like you are losing anything when you put Ted Wallace into the varsity game, you gain something."

May, who sat out the last regular season game with an injury, came back to the lineup and provided an offensive boost.

"I just got in a flow and hit my first couple of shots and just was telling them to give me the ball," May said. "They were giving me the ball and I was hot and it just all worked out. We were running the offense and we played really well. The whole team played really well. We were hitting on all cylinders tonight."

"I was really excited about being back. I was really pumped up for this game because it's the regionals and we wanted to advance."

"Zack was a big part of the turnaround tonight," VanBuskirk said. "He was really positive all over the floor and I think he was the big difference. He felt it the whole game and he wanted the ball more. They did a nice job for a while making sure that he didn't get the ball, but he did well to get open."

"Zack had a big game," Althoff coach Greg Leib said. "He had some nice looks and he made some tough shots. He is a very good competitor. I've watched them play some games and they've struggled. They've always been right there and this is what happens, similar to what we went through tonight, just a stretch that you would like to have back, but it's together tonight, they persevered, and when we were scoring they were able to stay with us. They came out on top."

Fahmer led Althoff with 12 points. Senior Scott Timmerman added eight for the Crusaders, who finished the season 15-12.

"We didn't screen very well tonight to get our guys open looks at the outside that we needed to get," Leib said.

"But those things happen. I can live with it because they really busted their tails. It's very frustrating and I feel for my seniors, because they are great guys and you hope to get them a little more. We worked hard all week and just came up short. I've got eight seniors and they are all great young men."

The Warriors will play top-seeded East St. Louis at 7:30 p.m. on Friday night.

"We have an awfully tough ballgame Friday night and we'll have to make all our free throws the whole game Friday night," VanBuskirk said. "You have to shoot the ball well from outside against East St. Louis. You have to move the ball and shoot well from outside. If you do that then you have a chance. They'll be at home so they will have the advantage. We are going to go down there and play and give it everything we've got."

REGIONAL NEWS

Mayhall Ambush dancer

Darla Mayhall of Granite City is one of the new members on the St. Louis Ambush Dance Line.

Miss Mayhall is a first-grade teacher at Niedringhaus Elementary School and the seventh- and eighth-grade cheerleading coach at Coolidge Middle School.

The Ambush Dancers perform at the Kiel Center at home games of the National Professional Soccer League team. The dancers range from college students, lawyers, nurses, pre-med students and teachers who willingly give their time and energy.

One of their main job objectives is to raise money for charities. The Ambush Dancers recently put on a clinic at Henry VIII hotel in St. Louis Feb. 21 and Feb. 28, where they taught dances to young dancers ranging from 4 years and up.

There will be another clinic held March 7 and 14, also at the Henry VIII in St. Louis. The girls attending the clinics will perform at a halftime show at the Kiel Center on scheduled home games with the Ambush Dancers. All proceeds go to the Muscular Dystrophy Association.

Collinsville hosts Veterans Stand Down

The fourth Metro-East Veterans Stand Down was held Jan. 30 at Collinsville's American Legion Post 365.

This event was sponsored by Illinois 22nd District American Legion and American Legion Auxiliary. The co-chairs were Roger Mickelson, 22nd District Commander from Highland Post 439, and Dorothy Hinson, Past Department President from Venice-Madison Unit 307.

This year, 492 veterans and about 150 family members were served. They were given photo ID's for the VA hospitals; information of jobs; medical and dental information; haircuts; clothing, both surplus and civilian; shoes and boots; children toys; canned food; and dittybags with personal hygiene articles. Two meals were also served to those present.

Many donations of clothing, toys, dittybag items, desserts and other food items and money were received from the many Posts and Units in the American Legion and Auxiliary, 22nd District.

The following guests were in attendance: John Johnston, director of Illinois Veterans Affairs and his wife, Alice; Vince Kutera, mayor of Collinsville; U.S. Rep. Jerry Costello; State Reps. Tom Holbrook and Jay Hoffman; Joseph Frank, past national commander of the American Legion, from St. Louis; Marilyn Lee, department president of the Illinois American Legion Auxiliary, from Chicago; Blanche Zimmer, department chair of VA and R for the Auxiliary, from Chicago; Gail Starr, first division president of the Auxiliary, from Chicago; Norman Simon, Illinois Fifth Division commander, from DuQuoin; and Kitty Blackwell, past department president of the Auxiliary, from Indiana.

The following organizations offered services that day from the veterans: United States Naval Reserve-Nurses Corps of Cape Girardeau, Mo.; Illinois Army National Guard from Mt. Vernon; Illinois Department of Veterans Affairs; American Legion Department of Veterans Affairs and Rehabilitation; Illinois Department of Employment Security; Veterans Leadership Program; Ryder Student Transportation Services; Madison County Veterans Assistance; St. Clair County Veterans Assistance; East St. Louis Veterans Center; and the VA Hospital Domiciliary.

Donations were received from the following business: Busy Bee Bakery in Madison; Seebold Bakery in Granite City; Snack Hut of Chicago; Jim's Men's and Boy's Shop of Trenton; Cassen's and Sons, Inc. of Edwardsville; Aufferberg-St. Clair Mall; St. Louis Bread Company of Belleville; Shop and Save of Wood River; Prairie Farms of Granite City; Cionko Market of Granite City; and Home Juice of Wood River.

There were a total of 186 volunteers, who served a total of 2,126 hours before and during the day of Stand Down.

Volunteers were from the American Legion, American Legion Auxiliary, Amvets and Auxiliary, DAV Auxiliary, Boy Scout Troop 14 of Belleville and the other service organizations listed above.

Sincere thanks is given to Collinsville American Legion Post 365 for the donation of the use of their building and facilities for this Stand Down.

The demise of a grand lady

70 years of history destroyed in seconds

By Clayton Berry
Staff writer

Just two days after the implosion of the Arena, demolition crews were on the site, separating the tons of rubble that once made up the historic structure at Oakland and Hampton avenues.

At 5:45 p.m. on Saturday, Feb. 27, the former home of the St. Louis Blues and venue for countless other events fell. It took less than 20 seconds for the 200 pounds of dynamite to topple the building.

The 69-year-old Arena fell from south to north just as predicted; the only complication was a 25-minute delay before the "go" signal was given. Even the rain stopped long before the last warning flares filled the sky.

"If a good implosion is a home run, this was a grand slam," said Eric Spirtas, president of the wrecking firm.

Within two weeks, workers are expected to begin removing the wood, concrete and steel from the site, said Spirtas, who was on the site March 1.

Many materials will be sold. Other pieces will become fodder for landfills.

The blasts left a 15-foot crater in the ground. Spirtas crews will use materials from the Arena itself to fill the hole. Workers likely will be off the site by June, Spirtas said. The demolition was funded by a $1 million state grant.

Hundreds of people turned out to watch the implosion. Many recognized the historic importance of the event. Still others came expecting an impressive show.

The loud explosions could be heard for miles. After the dust cleared, many in the crowd moved in for closer inspection.

An estimated 10,000 people gathered at the St. Louis Arena site at 5700 Oakland Ave., in the city's Central West End, Saturday evening to witness the demise of a 70-year St. Louis institution. Top, the home of the St. Louis Blues until 1994 explodes in a cloud of dust and smoke as it collapses. Clockwise below the headline, part of the crowd looks on as the building affectionately known as The Old Barn collapses; memorial pieces of paper express the sadness and outrage many felt about The Arena's destruction; a bouquet of flowers symbolizes the outpouring of support and sympathy for the building; and the Arena sees its last moments before Spirtas Wrecking Co. brought down the building. The Arena site was sold for $9 million to a development company who hopes to create a new office park on the site.

Author to lecture tonight

Sister Helen Prejean will discuss death penalty at college

Sister Helen Prejean — a writer, lecturer and community activist — will discuss capital punishment during a free public tonight at McKendree College.

Prejean

Her lecture is at 7 tonight in the Bearcat Center of McKendree College in Lebanon.

During her address, Prejean will explore such questions as: Should society's right to protect itself include the use of capital punishment? Does the application of the death penalty discriminate against the poor, the indigent and racial minorities?

After the address, questions will be accepted from the audience and a reception will be held.

Prejean, a nun in the Roman Catholic order of the Sisters of St. Joseph of Medaille, has focused her work on opposition to capital punishment.

She has served as the national chairwoman for the Committee to Abolish the Death Penalty. She is a 1998 Nobel Peace Prize nominee. And she is a founder of "Survive," a victim's advocacy group in New Orleans.

Prejean has lived and worked in Louisiana all her life. She began a prison ministry in 1981, counseling death row inmates in Louisiana's Angola State Prison. She accompanied three men to the electric chair and witnessed their deaths.

In 1982 she became spiritual adviser to Patrick Sonnier, who had been convicted of killing two teenagers and sentenced to die in the electric chair. In the months before his execution she came to know him, the families of his victims and the men whose job it was to execute him.

Sister Prejean's 1993 book, "Dead Man Walking," put her in the national spotlight and intensified the public debate surrounding capital punishment.

Chorale plans gospel concert

March 12 event is 1st of four by 50-strong group

By Ellen O. Drenkhahn
Correspondent

The Collinsville Chorale is planning a hand-clapping, foot-stomping gospel and spiritual concert March 12 that is sure to gladden the hearts and souls of everyone who attends.

The 75-minute concert, which begins at 7 p.m., will be at First Baptist Church on St. Louis Road.

The free concert is the first of four performances the 50-plus-member group puts on each year, said Gary Humphrey, founder and executive director of the nonprofit group.

The four concerts include: a spring concert before Easter; a patriotic concert on the Friday before the Fourth of July; a Broadway concert in October; and a Christmas concert in early December.

The size of the audience has grown along with the chorus. A fledgling 15-member chorus has more than tripled in size, while the crowd has swelled from 50 people to more than 500 for each performance.

Humphrey formed the group five years ago to provide the community with vocal music similar to the Southern Illinois University Edwardsville Chorus or the Masterworks Chorale of Belleville.

"We had a community group several years ago that did one concert a year. It only lasted a few years before it disbanded," Humphrey said. "We haven't had an outlet for talented individuals to come together since then, outside of our respective church choirs."

The chorus always is interested in auditioning new members. Each summer, current as well as prospective members must audition for spots on the chorus. The group does not practice on a weekly basis. Instead, it meets for rehearsals six times before each concert.

Collinsville Chorale is looking for a new director. The former director, Gary Hoobler, left Collinsville in December 1997 to accept a music ministry in Iowa. Hoobler had been the minister of music at First Baptist Church.

He recently returned and performed with the Collinsville Chorale Octet at a volunteer recognition breakfast at St. John Evangelical United Church of Christ.

"It's a little tough to find qualified music directors who will answer an ad that states the job offers very little pay and no fringe benefits," Humphrey said.

Members must pay for their own music and related expenses. The group exists on free will offerings, a fund raiser at the Italian Fest, a small grant through the Illinois Arts Council and through a sponsorship program.

As a nonprofit organization, all contributions are fully tax deductible. Gifts can be made in memory or honor of a loved one. All contributors are listed in the program printed for each concert.

There are several levels of annual sponsorships, including:

✓Friends, $25 annual contribution.

✓Donors, $50 annual contribution.

✓Associate, $100 annual contribution.

✓Patron, $500 annual contribution.

✓Director's Circle, $1,000 annual contribution.

The March 12 performance is expected to attract a large crowd. The spring concert does not always have a gospel theme, but gospel and spiritual music is always very popular with audiences, Humphrey said.

Plans are in the works to broadcast the spring concert on the cable access channel, as the past two Christmas concerts have been. One of the problems is the cost of producing the show. The concert must be taped by a professional cameraman to provide the quality necessary for broadcast.

"We hope to get things worked out because we believe the cable channel is an opportunity to bring our music to those who might not otherwise get to hear us."

Anyone interested in joining the chorus or becoming a sponsor should call Humphrey at 344-1960, or contact any member.

Youth art workshops to be offered at SIUE

Youth Art Workshops, part of the SummerArts '99 program at Southern Illinois University at Edwardsville, are scheduled for June and July in SIUE's Alumni Hall and in the Art and Design Building.

All workshops are designed to stimulate the aesthetic and creative growth of students working with art students studying to become certified art specialists:

The various workshops are:

- Ceramics/Sculpture Intermediate for ages 9-12, June 28-July 9. Session I — 9 to 11:30 a.m. (Alumni Hall, Room 3201), Session II — 9 to 11:30 a.m. (Alumni Hall, Room 3200), Session III

SummerArts program for students begins in June

— 1 to 3:30 p.m. (Alumni Hall, Room 3201), Session IV — 1 to 3:30 p.m. (Alumni Hall, Room 3200).

Students will create hand-built objects in clay. Sculpture is devoted to additive and subtractive approaches using many multi-media processes. Class size is limited to 10 and the cost per session is $70.

- Drawing/Painting Intermediate for ages 9-12, July 12-23. Sessions I and II will be offered from 9 to 11:30 a.m. and Sessions III and IV will be offered from 1 to 3:30 p.m. The cost per session is $70.

Sessions I and III will be conducted in Alumni Hall, Room 3201, and Sessions II and IV will be in Alumni Hall, Room 3200. The classes will provide hands-on experiences in drawing, painting, collage and printmaking. Students will be shown how to communicate ideas through a number of two-dimensional processes. Emphasis will be on creativity and originality. Class size will be limited to 10.

- Drawing/Painting Junior/Senior

High, for ages 13-18, June 14-July 2. Session I will be offered from 1 to 3:30 p.m., and Session II will be from 1 to 3:30 p.m. The cost per session is $75 and classes will be conducted in the Art and Design Building, offering intensive study in the studio areas of painting and drawing. Students will be introduced to approaches used in drawing and painting, with an emphasis on composition, subject selection and techniques. Enrollment is limited to 10 students, who may enroll in one or both sessions; curriculum will be adjusted accordingly for those

'Eight Millimeter' tops at box office

Nicolas Cage shows drawing power

The dark thriller "Eight Millimeter" was in the No. 1 spot at the weekend box office — the sixth consecutive movie for Nicolas Cage to earn $14 million at its opening, according to industry estimates.

Another action movie, Mel Gibson's revenge-fest "Payback," was No. 2, beating out "The Other Sister" and "Message in a Bottle," estimates released Sunday showed.

"Eight Millimeter," with Cage as a private eye wading through the grim porn subculture, debuted at No. 1 with $14.3 million in North America.

The opening was a testament to Cage's box office strength, observers said. Audiences turned out despite some of the harshest reviews for a movie this year.

Cage's last six movies have now opened with $14 million or more.

Among the other new releases, "The Other Sister," with Juliette Lewis in a love story about two mentally disabled people, had a respectable debut, collecting $6.7 million for third place.

Two other films had lackluster openings.

"200 Cigarettes," about young people heading in their roundabout ways to a party in 1980s New York, was 10th with $3.2 million.

And "Just the Ticket," the Andy Garcia-Andie MacDowell ticket-scalper romantic comedy, had just $266,500 on 82 screens.

The shoot-'em-up "Payback" had $6.9 million for second, while the Kevin Costner romance "Message in a Bottle" was fourth with $6.4 million and the sitcom-comes-to-the-big-screen "My Favorite Martian" was fifth with $5.2 million.

The rocketry story "October Sky" lost only 15 percent of its audience in the second week to finish sixth with $5 million, followed by the best-picture Oscar nominee "Shakespeare in Love" with $4.4 million for seventh.

Rounding out the top 10 were "Blast from the Past," the comedy with Brendan Fraser coping with the modern-day world after growing up in a bomb shelter, with $3.7 million for eighth, and the teen Pygmalion tale "She's All That" with $3.6 million for ninth.

Another teen-oriented film, "Jawbreaker," tumbled more than 50 percent in its second week, collecting just $750,000 for a weak $936 per-screen average.

Here are estimated grosses at North American theaters for Friday through Sunday:

1. "Eight Millimeter," $14.3 million.
2. "Payback," $6.9 million.
3. "The Other Sister," $6.7 million.
4. "Message in a Bottle," $6.4 million.
5. "My Favorite Martian,"

$5.2 million.

6. "October Sky," $5 million.

7. "Shakespeare in Love," $4.4 million.

8. "Blast from the Past," $3.7 million.

9. "She's All That," $3.6 million.

10. "200 Cigarettes," $3.2 million.

Sport pairs lasers, childhood games

Planet Paintball brings hide-and-seek to 1990s

By Wade Alberty
Staff writer

There is a war zone in downtown Belleville, and some churches are part of the fight.

"Church groups love it," said Dusty Loeffler, field manager of Planet Paintball. "For some reason, they like to shoot their pastors. I don't know why that is, but they love it."

What Loeffler is talking about is paintball — a sport that gives adults a chance to return to childhood.

Planet Paintball features a new indoor playing field and pro-shop at 118 North First St. in Belleville.

Paintball is a sport that originated in the early 1980s. The sport combines the elements of childhood games, like hide-and-seek and tag, with elements of more modern games like Laser Tag.

"It only takes one time," said Chris Bank, who plays in a Thursday night league.

The main object of paintball is to shoot your opponent with capsules filled with a paint-like substance, while avoiding being shot. There are several games with many variations you can play, but the main objective remains the same: shoot your opponents before they can shoot you.

"It doesn't get much more fun than this," said Paul Hack as he prepared to take the field.

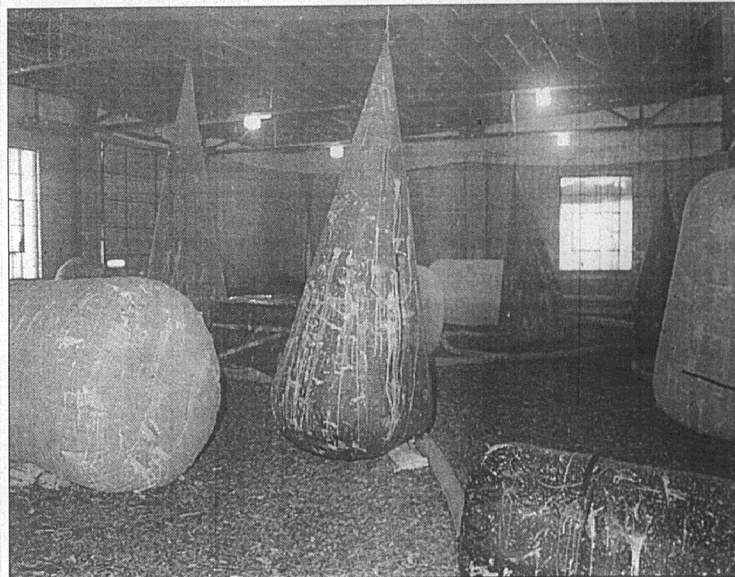

The paintballs are round, gelatin capsules, filled with a non-toxic, non-caustic, water soluble, biodegradable, colored liquid.

The paintballs resemble a bath oil bead or a gelcap pill.

"It's totally organic and washes easily out of your clothes," said Loeffler.

The paintballs are fired at opponents with paintguns. The guns are powered by compressed carbon dioxide or compressed air.

Paintguns range from $30 to $1,800, depending on what features you want.

A view of the Planet Paintball playing field in Belleville.

Kipp Robinson, owner of Planet Paintball, said safety is a main priority when playing. Participants at Planet Paintball are required to wear safety goggles that offer full face and ear protection. The goggles are impact tested and safety rated.

"We use the highest rated safety goggles on the market," said Robinson.

Also, when participants are not on the field and playing, they must have a safety plug in the barrel of their gun to prevent any shots from being accidentally fired, said

Auditions open for 'Two Rooms'

The Arts League Players will hold auditions for a production of Lee Blessing's "Two Rooms" today and Friday. The auditions will be from 7 to 9 p.m. at the Arts League Players Warehouse/World Headquarters in Edwardsville.

The Arts League headquarters is at the corner of Kansas and Park streets. "Two Rooms" is a gripping and emotional drama about a hostage in Beirut, his wife back home, and her dealings with the government and media. The play calls for a cast of four, two men and two women, ages 30-45. The Arts League Players encourage anyone who is interested in any aspect of theater, and with any degree of experience in theater (including no experience at all), to attend.

Rehearsals will begin early this month, and performances run April 16-17 and 23-24.

No prepared material is required for the audition, although auditioners are invited to prepare a short modern dramatic monologue if they would prefer this to a cold reading.

For more information, call 650-3239.

Loeffler.

Referees are also present at every game to ensure safety and good sportsmanship.

Loeffler said it does not hurt when you get shot. It is just a mild stinging sensation that goes away in a couple of seconds.

For $20, a person can rent a gun, safety goggles and game time, or if you have your own gun, it is only $10. Paintballs are extra, with prices starting at 100 balls for $7.52.

Planet Paintball's had more than 60 people participate in its grand opening on Jan. 1.

It offers a weekly league on Thursday nights, open play on Friday nights and team practices on Sunday mornings; you can also schedule games anytime of the week by appointment.

Spectators can watch from the 650-square-foot observation deck.

"We get mothers on the deck going crazy, telling their kids where to go and to get the flag," said Loeffler.

For further information, call Planet Paintball at 222-0377.

Murray is life of the party

Comedian has played memorable roles

Trivia

Kevin Carbery

By Kevin Carbery
Staff writer

Bill Murray is the life of the party.

There are performers who give you the impression that they are putting on an act when they are in the public eye, but I have every reason to believe Murray is as goofy in his regular life as he is on stage.

Murray is one of my heroes. He seems like the kind of guy who has fun no matter what he is doing.

I first knew of him when he replaced Chevy Chase on "Saturday Night Live." While Chase was good on the show, Bill actually made it better.

His first starring role in a movie was in "Meatballs," a terrific little comedy about a summer camp. He went on to appear in such hilarious flicks as "Caddyshack," "Stripes," "Ghostbusters" and "What About Bob?"

He has made memorable supporting appearances in a number of films. He is great as Dustin Hoffman's roommate in "Tootsie." He puts in a side-splitting cameo as a dental patient who enjoys pain in "Little Shop of Horrors." He absolutely steals his scenes in "Ed Wood," "Kingpin" and "Wild Things."

I thoroughly enjoyed his latest picture, "Rushmore." He is great as a depressed millionaire who ends up in a war with a teenager over a beautiful teacher. Critics have said that it was a crime he was not nominated for a Best Supporting Actor Oscar this year and I agree.

I have even appreciated some of his works that others panned. I loved "Quick Change," which did not do well

Weekend craft show at Triad

The ninth annual Spring Craft Show of the Triad Athletic Boosters Club will be this weekend at Triad High School.

Saturday hours are 9 a.m. to 5 p.m., and Sunday hours are 10 a.m. to 4 p.m.

This craft fair is one of the largest in the area with 200 booths of hand-crafted items from all over the Midwest. Booths will feature floral decorations, baskets, ceramics, jewelry, needlecraft, dolls, Early American and Southwestern items and other items.

at the box office. I also got more out of "The Man Who Knew Too Little" than most other viewers. I must admit that "Larger Than Life" did not do much for me, although it provided some chuckles.

For this week's quiz, I will give you a famous line from Bill's "Saturday Night Live" and movie characters. Your task is to come up with the "SNL" character or the movie the line comes from.

1. "Noogie patrol."
2. "I'd keep playing. I don't think the heavy stuff's gonna come down for quite a while."
3. "I'm sailing! I sail! I'm a sailor!"
4. "I wish I had a theater that was only open when it rained."
5. "You're a lean, mean fighting machine!"
6. "And I mean that, sincerely."
7. "This is the one time where television really fails to capture the true excitement of a large squirrel predicting the weather."
8. "Back off, man. I'm a scientist!"
9. "It just doesn't matter!"
10. "If they should bar wars, let's hope that 'Star Wars' will never end."

ANSWERS: 1. Todd, from the nerds sketches on "SNL," 2. "Caddyshack." He says this during a downpour while he is working as a caddy. 3. "What About Bob?" 4. "Tootsie." 5. "Stripes." He tells this to Ox while trying to convince him to mud wrestle some girls. 6. His newscaster persona on the "Weekend Update" segments of "SNL." 7. "Groundhog Day." 8. "Ghostbusters." 9. "Meatballs." 10. Nick, the lounge singer on "SNL."

Is country music in a slump?

Album sales have sagged since '95

Merle Haggard may have summed up the current state of country music with a line from a 1982 hit: "Are the good times really over for good?"

Layoffs have hit the country music industry.

After reaching record heights in 1995, country album sales have sagged. Sales were up 2.7 percent in 1998, and the gain was due largely to one artist: Garth Brooks, who accounted for 10 percent of the nearly 73 million albums sold, according to SoundScan, which tracks sales.

At the same time, the industry has been unable to launch new acts able to generate the kind of pop-star revenue that Brooks and Shania Twain produce.

As a result, Arista Nashville, a division of RCA, fired six executives last week. Song publisher Sony/ATV Tree dropped about half of its Nashville roster of 100 songwriters in October, citing declining royalties.

Mercury and MCA Records, owned by Seagram Co., have laid off seven country-division employees between them. And the publishing divisions of PolyGram and MCA will soon merge, costing songwriting jobs in Nashville.

Some worry that a repeat of the mid-1980s may be in store. That's when the bottom fell out of the country music boom started by the 1980 movie "Urban Cowboy."

"The consumer is changing," said Joe Galante, who runs the Nashville office for RCA Records. "And I'm not sure everybody's got their finger on the pulse. ... Clearly there is a problem in terms of what we are doing as an industry."

Nashville may be a victim of its own phenomenal success. Revenue from the sale of country music albums quadrupled between 1989 and 1995 to about $2 billion, when Brooks became one of the most recognizable celebrities in America.

As the money rolled in, companies like Warner Bros. and MCA built expensive office buildings, gave employees raises and hired more people. Now those companies are looking to cut costs.

HOROSCOPE

THURSDAY, MARCH 4

If you've been fighting the good fight to no avail, it's time to step back and let the natural tides take over. Justice is done under the Libra moon. Contemplate ramifications of even the most simple actions, and avoid complicating your life later. Classy self-expression brings people together. Singles find love while pursuing artistic ventures.

TODAY'S BIRTHDAY (March 4). Savor the time that you devote to yourself. In April, the highlight is on variety, passion and energy renewal. Old friends come back into the picture. Someone may be urging you to reassess.

ARIES (March 21-April 19). Have a financial discussion with someone who can help. Many people see you as a confident and soul mate. A friend's romantic intentions become more obvious.

TAURUS (April 20-May 20). You can make sense of something that previously seemed impenetrable. If you feel you've outgrown a relationship or situation, wrap it up, and move on to something new.

GEMINI (May 21-June 21). Harmless flirting can be fun and flattering. Shopping brings bargains and good luck. Your principles set the standard for others. Avoid settling for imperfect service or products. A little compassion goes a long way at home.

CANCER (June 22-July 22). Your patience and adaptability are key, especially in public. An agreement is signed, sealed and delivered. If you're planning a party, be extravagant, but remember good taste. Change the parameters of a relationship.

LEO (July 23-Aug. 22). Your creative energy draws others to you and stirs up excitement about your current projects. Share your success with those who have helped you attain it. You can override minor setbacks by ensuring good communication.

VIRGO (Aug. 23-Sept. 22). The work you do this morning will serve you well in the future. It takes a while to feel comfortable in a new situation. Be honest with employers and other people who actively influence your future. Arrange introductions.

LIBRA (Sept. 23-Oct. 23). Spell out all of the details clearly. Someone finally expresses feelings he or she has held in for a long while. Your ability to effectively utilize time determines your success. Ask for space, but don't (See HOROSCOPE, Page 11D) isolate yourself.

SCORPIO (Oct. 24-Nov. 21). Love is met while you are practicing a group activity or sport. Leos and Virgos will be impressed with your calm, strong manner. Encourage a mate to follow his or her own path to success. Write down and save your best idea.

SAGITTARIUS (Nov. 22-Dec. 21). It takes more than just you to get the job done, so share the load. Don't sign up for classes or trips unless you are positive you have enough time — wasting money is a danger now. An Aries helps you get motivated.

CAPRICORN (Dec. 22-Jan. 19). If you spend the morning putting fires out, you'll be behind by 1 p.m. Close the door, turn off the phone, and ward off distractions in the early morning. Most of what seems pressing will handle itself without you.

AQUARIUS (Jan. 20-Feb. 18). You may find a stray today, or rather, one may find you. Explore those options you shunned last year because they were too expensive. You have more at your disposal this year. Finances are on the upswing.

PISCES (Feb. 19-March 20). There is so much love in your life, you can't help but be appreciative. Besides, focusing on lack is the surest way to create more of it. You are in tune with the cycles of nature, and your lover isn't — teach a lesson in intuition tonight.

Small record companies Rising Tide, Magnatone, Almo Sounds, Imprint and Decca have all closed their doors in the past couple of years. "It was a total surprise to me, to everybody," said Kim Fowler, a publicist who had barely started a job at Rising Tide a year ago when the company folded. "People are getting squeezed out and they have nowhere to go in the music business."

Promising singers like Shane Stockton, Chris Knight and Matraca Berg have lost their record deals. "Whenever you mix art and commerce, you put yourself in danger of the current craze or trends or style," said Jimmie Fadden of The Dirt Band, country music veterans who were about to release an album on Rising Tide when the label closed. They have signed with DreamWorks.

Galante estimated that 10 percent of record company staffers may be cut in the long run, and as many as 20 percent of songwriters will lose the stipends from publishing companies that allow them to write full time.

Nashville has survived such trends before. The industry rebounded from the decline in the mid-1980s to reach unprecedented heights. And even now, far more country albums are being sold now than a decade ago, and country music remains the most popular radio format by far.

Del Bryant of New York-based BMI, which distributes songwriting royalties, said all the changes could help in the long run. Larger companies will be leaner and the consolidations may allow smaller record companies to re-emerge, he said.

"Nashville is the classic town that takes two steps forward, then one step back," said Bryant, who started his career in Music City.

Turner apologizes for Polish joke

ATLANTA — Ted Turner apologized for insulting the pope with a Polish joke and calling for deleting the ban on adultery from the Ten Commandments.

In a letter sent to the Catholic League, the CNN founder said he "regrets any offense his comments may have caused ... and extends his heartfelt apologies." The New York based anti-defamation organization for Roman Catholics accepted the apology.

Turner made an ethnic joke regarding Pope John Paul II, who is Polish, while addressing the National Family Planning and Reproductive Center in Washington.

When asked what he would say if he ever met the pope, Turner responded, "Ever seen a Polish mine detector?" Turner then showed the audience his foot, said Marilyn Keefe, spokeswoman for the center.

He went on to say that Pope John

PEOPLE & PLACES

Paul II should "get with it" and suggested that adultery should be removed from the Ten Commandments.

Turner, who has five children, also suggested a "one-child" policy for all couples worldwide to help control the world's population. He and wife Jane Fonda donated $1 billion to the United Nations last year for population programs.

ST. PAUL, Minnesota — When Gov. Jesse Ventura welcomes Czech President Vaclav Havel this spring, there will be rock 'n' roll — and Ventura wants people to know it's Havel's idea, not his.

Appearing live on "The Late, Late

Show with Tom Snyder" recently, Ventura said he met with the Czech ambassador, who said Havel dislikes black-tie affairs.

"Then I almost tipped over backwards in my chair when he said (Havel) also gets very bored at these type of dinners. He said, 'Is there a chance that there could be some rock 'n' roll?'" said Ventura, a former professional wrestler known as "The Body."

"I said to my communications people, please get this out to the public so they don't think that Jesse Ventura is now doing something to get the president of the Czech Republic into rock 'n' roll."

Ventura said he plans to hire a local rock band. Snyder suggested that perhaps a polka band might do.

"Speak for yourself," Ventura said.
